In Memory of Vernon Mull

(March 29, 1958—September 25, 1976)

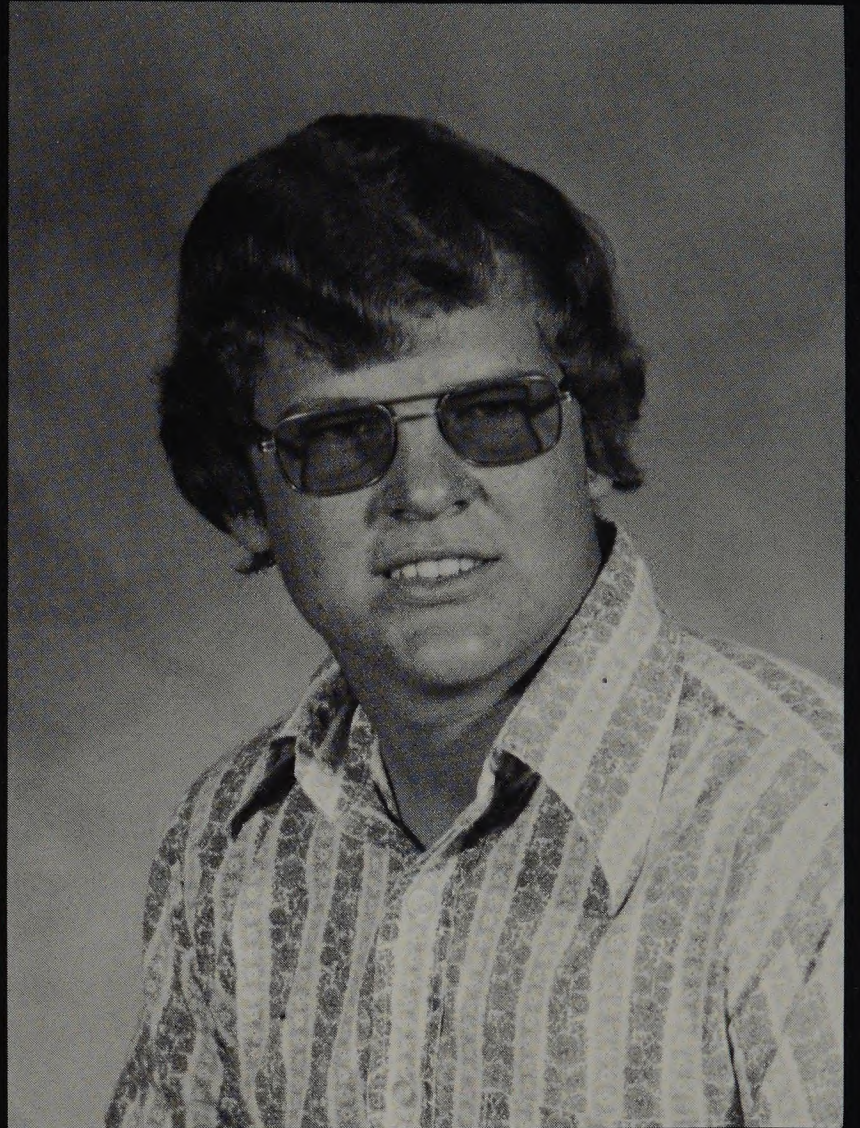

"The Measure of a Man"

Not—"How did he die?" But—"How did he live?"
Not—"What did he gain?" But—"What did he give?"
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

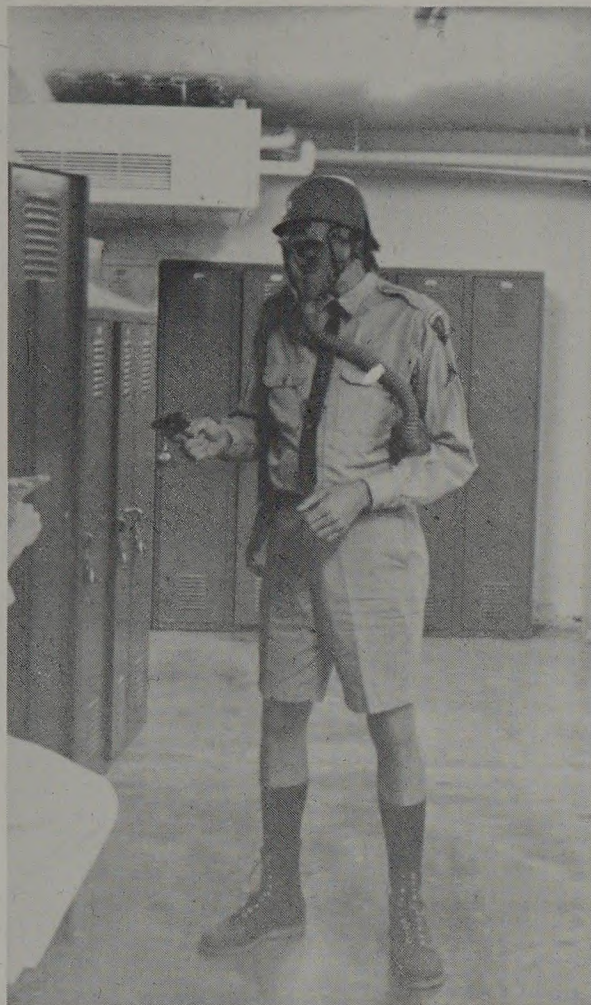

Not—"What was his station?" But—"Had he a heart?"
And—"How did he play his God-given part?"
Was he ready with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?"

Not—"What was his church?" Nor—"What was his creed?"
But—"Had he befriended those really in need?"
Not—"What did the sketch in the newspaper say?"
But—"How many were sorry when he passed away?"

The G.H.S. faculty and student body were saddened at the loss of one of our senior students. Eighteen year old Vernon Paul Mull died Saturday, September 25 in a car accident on the way to work in Charles City. It is tragic to realize one of our own who we saw in the hall just a few days earlier was suddenly gone. But we can all be sure that Vernon was prepared for death, probably more than anyone among us.

G.H.S. Welcomes Foreign Student

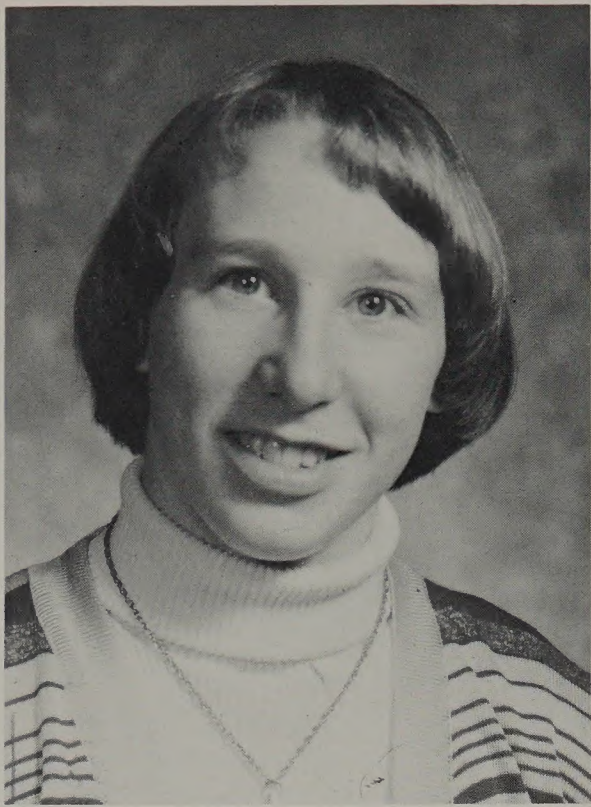

August 1976, Patricio (Pat) Rodriguez came from Loja, Equador to attend Greene Community School. Pat lived with the Duane Miller and Elmer Bramer families. He became a familiar, friendly face. Pat became active in basketball and track. At this time Pat is considering attending a college in Iowa.

Six hundred students are Greene. Not huge by means, the student body is still large enough to reflect the diversity that always exists in groups of young people. Interests and hobbies, and lifestyles, even in a small rural school like Greene, have a way of being slightly different from one person to another. Greene has full-time athletes, part-time poets, and some-time academicians. It has artists and actors, speakers and singers, good guys and bad guys.

School is more than books and assignments. Without the things you are about to see, the time spent at Greene would hopelessly drag. With involvement and interests in varied activities, however, the days at school can pass so quickly that at the year's end, one looks back and wonders where the time has gone.

Volleyball & Cross Country

The Greene varsity volleyball team won 4 matches this fall while losing 16. The record, however, was not indicative of the fine play of the Ramblerettes. The Greene girls defeated both St. Ansgar and Manly the only two undefeated teams in volleyball. Eight out of the top ten scorers will return for next year. The JV won four while losing six. Captain of the volleyball team this year was Bev Brinkman while Kari Schmidt was MVP.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

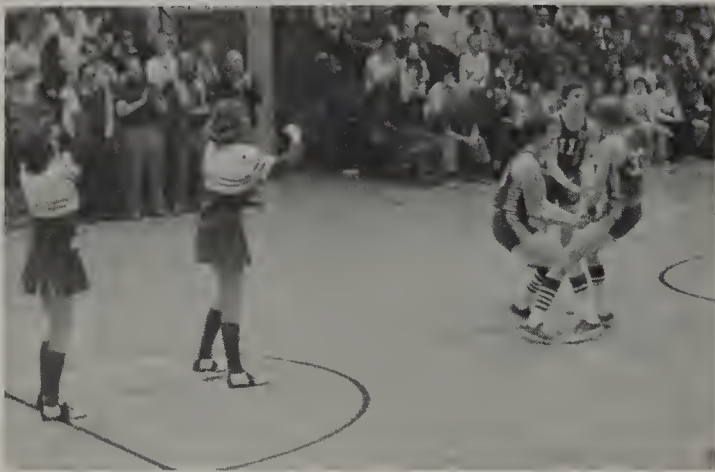

The Greene Varsity BB team finished the 76-77 season with a 11-10 overall record. This was a young team with only two seniors, Bev Brinkman and Laura Harris. The team started very slowly and had a 2-7 record at the Christmas break. The Ramblerettes were 9-3 in '77 with a 6-1 conference record in the second half of the season. Losing only a hotly contested two point contest to League Champion Nora Springs.

The highlight of the season was Laura's last second basket that gave Greene a come from behind one point win over arch-rival Rockford.

Boys' Junior Varsity Basketball

The 9th grade team had a fine season with a record of 4-0. During the end of the season, when the J.V. squad was split mainly into two teams, the 9th grade team was very instrumental in helping the J.V. win the last two ballgames of the season. The J.V. squad, as a whole, started out the season losing, but as the season progressed they started playing better defense, running the offense better, and putting the ball through the hoop with more consistency. During the middle of the season two or three ball games could have been wins instead of defeats, except that we weren't hungry enough.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

Wrestling team—Herb Decker, Brian Nettleton, Scot Spratt, Todd Steere, Alan Zweck, Dana Stock. Second—Coach Griffin, Troy Menken, Denny Delp, David Meyer, Stew Pyatt, Jeff Conry, Ron Smith, Manager Jeff McGee, and Coach Sturm.

The wrestling program is in a rebuilding stage with only two seniors on the squad. Many of the young wrestlers had limited experience and improved throughout the season. These boys will make a fine nucleus for a promising team, but more wrestlers are needed to add competition in the different weight classes.

The season was highlighted by Denny Delp when he qualified for the State Tournament. Denny finished the season with a 22-3-1 record. In tournament action Denny was second at the Calmar Tourney, first at the Tripoli Tourney, first at the Greene Tourney, second in the Conference, first at the Sectionals in Britt, and first in the Districts at Waverly.

A summary of individual honors include Stew Pyatt and Ron Smith as Co-captains, Denny Delp as Most Valuable and Most Takedowns, Stew Pyatt with the Fastest Fall, Scott Spratt with the Most Falls, and Brian Nettleton was Most Improved.

Highlights

Homecoming '76-'77

On Homecoming night, the '75-'76 queen, Kathy Wust Stauffer, crowned Peggy Steere the new queen. Peggy's court included Becky Wust, Veronica Merfeld, Lisa Bigler, and Patti McGee. A bonfire, parade, football game, and dance made the event memorable to everyone.

"Importance of Being Ernest"

The G.H.S. drama department produced Oscar Wilde's satirical comedy "The Importance of Being Earnest" for this year's play. The gymnasium stage was transformed into an elegant London flat and a lavish garden and morning room of a home in Herefordshire. The play was set in late Victorian England. A full British dialect and gay period costumes were used to add to the aristocratic style of the play. In the play two young men seek the hands of two young ladies in spite of social obstacles. The obstacles are no more serious than the young man. Their chosen lovers can only cherish a man named Earnest. With the discovery of a long lost handbag the mystery is solved and they live happily ever after.

“Nostalgia Is Here”

The vocal department held their annual variety show with the theme, "Nostalgia Is Here." The show consisted of the chorus and small groups singing songs that had been popular several years ago. Much practice by students and direction by Mr. Lien made the show a success.

Greene students gave the public an opportunity to come and observe what it is that they do at school. Much work by students and a large crowd made this night a success.

Drama and Vocal Awards

The Dramatics and Vocal Music Departments teamed up to present their year's honors at the Fine Arts Awards Evening held on May 11. Entertainment for the large crowd of spectators was supplied by a choral reading called "Equal Frights", two humorous speeches delivered by Jeff Conry and Brian Nettleton, and by several numbers sung by the junior high and high school chorus. The vocal music participation bars and the Arian Award were presented by Mr. Lien. The speech and dramatics awards were presented by Mr. O'Brien. Students were awarded medals for State I's, State II's, the Mohawk Interpretation Festival, outstanding performance awards at state, and a play pin for a major role in this year's fall play, "The Importance of Being Ernest." The stage was pretty full by the time all these students were recognized for this year's outstanding achievements in competitive speech and dramatics. This year marked the first year that speech students were allowed to letter in speech and also marked the beginning of the WOB awards. These awards were voted on by the speech students themselves, to recognize the student they felt had achieved the most excellent performance in a given area. The four nominations for each award were chosen from all students eligible. The nominee receiving the highest number received a trophy.

Receiving WOB's for performance by category were: Best Humorous Speech—Monte Bramer, Best Humorous Actor—tie between Jeff Conry and Monte Bramer, Best Humorous Actress—tie between Peggy Steere and Ellen Nixt, Best Dramatic Speech—Becky Wust. Nancy Watkins was named Most Improved Speech Student.

The cast of the choral reading, "Equal Frights" performed at the Fine Arts Awards Night to the applause of the audience. This group received a unanimous State I rating earlier in the spring at the State Large Group Contest.

The stage was rather crowded with students recognized for their awards won at State Contests, Mohawk, and for the fall play. Greene received 30 individual State I ratings in group events at state, 7 students were sighted for outstanding performance at state contest, and again Greene swept all the honors at the state wide Mohawk Interpretation Festival. Greene won more honors in speech this year than any other school in Iowa.

Becky Wust was honored by both the Vocal Music and Speech Department as the outstanding chorus and speech student for the Class of '77. Becky has been in chorus 4 years and in speech for 3 years. This honor is awarded to the senior showing the most dedication, service, dependability and leadership.

Junior high is a bridge between carefree elementary days and the hurried pace of high school. Two years are allotted to make you forget about recesses and learn about logarithms. It's the time when you want to go out on a date, yet have no idea what to do if you can arrange one. It's the time when you go to dances and stand around all night, wishing you weren't afraid to ask a girl to dance. Mostly, junior high is the time you begin to grow up. At least a little bit.

Elementary is one of the best times around. It's the most carefree time public education allows you. When you are in elementary, problems are simple and easy to solve. A thing like a valentine from a pretty girl will keep your spirits high for weeks. Getting a "smile" on your spelling paper makes something great to bring home and show your mom.

Being retrospective is sometimes a good idea, especially when one remembers only the innocent kind of friendships youthful companionship nurtured.
